Balboa Theatre Grant Fund

Purpose

The Balboa Theatre Grant Fund was established to support local, non-profit organizations in their use of the Balboa Theatre. The intention was to make the production of an event at the Theatre as affordable and accessible as possible to the San Diego Community.

Background

The Historic Balboa Theatre was renovated by the City of San Diego's Redevelopment Agency, and re-opened for use in January 2008. When the funding was provided for the Theatre's $26.5M restoration, the original Redevelopment Agency committed that the Balboa Theatre would be retained as a public asset for the benefit of the community. One of the goals of this commitment was that the Balboa Theatre would be made as affordable and accessible as possible to local non-profit organizations.

Following the renovation, the Balboa Theatre's Opening Gala was held on January 31, 2008 as a fund-raising event. Net proceeds from the Gala were used to establish the Balboa Theatre Endowment Fund. The Fund was placed on deposit with the San Diego Foundation and is administered in accordance with endowment guidelines of the San Diego Foundation under the guidance and administration of the Balboa Theatre Endowment Fund Committee.

Distributable portions from this fund are requested by San Diego Theatres annually from the San Diego Foundation, and recorded in account 3300-Balboa Theatre Grant Fund.
